HEALTHPLUS BOARD MEMBER, JAMES J. WASCHA, HONORED FOR INVALUABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

FLINT, MI –Attorney James J. Wascha will be honored and recognized for his invaluable contribution as a member of the HealthPlus Board of Directors on Wednesday, November 2 at 5pm at the Flint Children's Museum.

Jim served on the HealthPlus Board of Directors since 1982, acting as Board Chair for three terms and Treasurer for five terms. Throughout his term, Jim was a passionate advocate of fair services for both patients and healthcare providers.

He is a great supporter of many non-profit organizations in the community, including the Flint Children's Museum; therefore to honor him, HealthPlus will donate $5,000.00 to the Flint Children's Museum to establish their TAFFY (Transportation Assistance For Flint Youth) fund, which will ensure local children have the opportunity to visit the museum.

*For additional information regarding this event, please contact Brian Dilworth, Executive Director of the Flint Children's Museum, at 810-767-5437.

*Media welcome, light refreshments and horderves provided.
