FLINT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM NOW OPEN ON SUNDAYS

FLINT, MI – January 22nd through May 31st the Flint Children's Museum will be open to the public on Sundays from 12pm – 5pm. Walk-in guests, birthday parties, and other groups are all welcome.

After being closed on Sundays for more than six years, the director and staff of the museum are excited to open again. "Opening the museum on Sundays provides another great place for parents to take their kids, it gives more children the chance to have their birthdays at this cool and unique place, and it even provides a job to someone in the community. You can't go wrong!" said Kimberly Roddy, Director of Public Relations.

The museum will operate as normal on Sundays, with their main exhibits, Discovery Zone, and special programming all available.

For additional information contact the museum via email at discovery@flintchildrensmuseum.org, call directly at 810-767-5437, or visit them online at www.flintchildrensmuseum.org The Flint Children's Museum is located on the campus of Kettering University at 1602 W. University Ave. Admission to the museum is $6 for ages 1 and up.
