TAKE A TRIP OUT OF THIS WORLD IN A BRAND NEW EXHIBIT

FLINT, MI— 3...2...1! A new exhibit is launching at the Flint Children's Museum.

Out of this World opens Saturday, December 18, 2010 and will run through March 5, 2011.

Blast off into space to work at the space station or climb in the moon lander. Pretend to be an astronaut as you bounce along the moon. Soar through the solar system and explore constellations, but beware of alien sightings!

This exhibit offers educational information about the solar system, constellations, patterns, gravity and more.

There will be special Out of this World activities throughout the run of the exhibit. Check the museum's website calendar at www.flintchildrensmuseum.org for specific dates and times.

The Flint Children's Museum is open Tuesday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Located on the campus of Kettering University at 1602 W. University Ave. Admission is $4/person for ages 1 and up. For more information call 810-767-5437.
