FLINT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM SUCCESSFUL FIRST SUNDAY

FLINT, MI – Being open for the first Sunday in 6 years proved to be a success at the Flint Children's Museum this past weekend. Cathy Kelley, the Director of Operations for the organizations said, "If we get 100 people this Sunday, it will be a success" and on Sunday exactly 100 guests visited the museum between 12pm and 5pm. Some came for birthday parties, some came with coupons, and some came with sacked lunches.

After the eventful weekend, the museum received supportive emails from some of their Sunday guests, including one email that read "My children (and husband) all had so much fun! We will definitely be returning soon. Thank you for being open on Sundays. It worked out so much better for our busy schedule."

The museum will continue to be open on Sundays from now until May 31st. For additional information contact the museum via email at discovery@flintchildrensmuseum.org, call directly at 810-767-5437, or visit them online at www.flintchildrensmuseum.org The Flint Children's Museum is located on the campus of Kettering University at 1602 W. University Ave. Admission to the museum is $6 for ages 1 and up.
